“ I was just told that Eileen has passed. Words cannot express how saddened to hear this.

I admired and respected, Eileen. The best way for me to describe Eileen, is that she was truly a beacon of light, and positivity. Always greeted officers and citizens with respect and humbled-politeness.

Deepest condolences to her and our Detroit Police Family. R.I.P. Foley 🙏

“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of Eileen. I was a friend of Joset's while growing up in the old neighborhood in Detroit. I remember going to court as a young Police officer where Eileen worked. She was always so friendly and greeted everyone with a smile. Sending hugs and good thoughts to Joset and her family.

“ I never had the chance to meet Eileen, however I work with her daughter JoSet. From all the wonderful stories that Jo has shared with me about her mother, it's not hard to see that JoSet's loving and beautiful spirit came from and was fostered by her mother, Eileen.

I know the pain of losing a mother, there's never a time when you're ready. Eileen's children, JoSet and Jason, are in my heart and in my prayers.

For you JoSet:

A Daughter's Promise

*Every time I smile,
Every time I sigh,
I think of your face,
And a tear escapes my eye.*

*You were my world,
My inspiration and my heart,
But when you left me,
I thought I would fall apart.*

*You were my best friend,
My one true confidant,
And it's not all you were,
You were also my mom.*

*It's hard to live without you,
But you would want me to,
And if there's anyone I want to make happy,
That anyone is you.*

*I would give anything to have you back,
But I know that it was meant to be,
For you are watching from heaven,*

And I know you're watching me.

*I'll make you proud, Mom.
I'm going to fulfill your wish.
You're going to see me and smile.
That's a daughter's promise.*

Love you Jo!
