“ Eileen, how could I ever forget you, a loving soul filled with caring and laughter! I will always remember being with you at Jim and Kays on the many Christmas Eves we shared there. You always called me Sis, and would bring me into the folds of the family and its happenings! We would bid each other "farewell and Merry Christmas" at the end of our evening there. Now, sadly, I must bid you farewell one last time, not on the eve of Christmas however, but on the "eve" of celebrating our Saviors resurrection and what it meant to you. Christ died for us all, Eileen, and He certainly died and was raised for you, a truly kind and beautiful person in every way. I'm sure Jimmie and Jerry were waiting at the gate for you with roses and shamrocks! I will remember you always Eileen, especially at Easter...rejoicing in Our Father's love for us all!
Love, Sis

“ Scott always talked about Alayna's grandparents and how much he enjoyed spending time with them. He described Grandma Eileen as "the bomb" The Brown family sends prayers and hugs during this difficult time.

“ Eileen was one of the few people I know who could keep up with, and more often than not, best Denny and his siblings in a battle of wits and cracks. The "Outlaw" table will miss her.

“ Our dear Eileen had so many of the fruits of the Holy Spirit mentioned in our Scriptures - love, joy, peace, patience, goodness, kindness, generosity, and faith. So often, we witnessed the exuberance of her joy in her laugh and her smile and her wit!. And her faith was so deep and so lived and so loving! All these gifts will stay with all of us who know Eileen and in exceptional ways in Denny and each member of their loving family.
Blessings and love always
