“Death of a loved one is never easy. May you find an abundance of comfort in your family, friends and especially the future blessings found in Jehovah God's word. He has promised to swallow up death forever and reunite us with all who fall asleep in death. (Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29) As a God of love who cannot lie we can certainly trust all he says to come true. (1 John 4:8 & Titus 1:2) It is my hope that these words and the fond memories of your loved one sustain you through this most difficult time.

“I hope the words below will be of some comfort to your family. The Bible states: “As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:26) Never again will grief-stricken people have to go to a cemetery to bury a loved one. The Bible says: “Death will be no more.” (Revelation 21:4) Do you not agree that the Bible’s viewpoint on what happens at death is a comforting one?

Sending my condolence to the Stone family, I had the pleasure of knowing Eileen a short time, but she left a image that I will always remember as a very carrying lady, may she rest in peace ...Elsie Boisvert
