“Death of a loved one is never easy. May you find an abundance of comfort in your family, friends and especially the future blessings found in Jehovah God's word. He has promised to swallow up death forever and reunite us with all who fall asleep in death. (Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29) As a God of love who cannot lie we can certainly trust all he says to come true. (1 John 4:8 & Titus 1:2) It is my hope that these words and the fond memories of your loved one sustain you through this most difficult time.

“My sincere sympathy to the Czechowski and Knobloch family. Dr. Knobloch was our family doctor when I was growing up. Losing a loved one is so hard even though we all know it is our fate, our destiny. Sincerely, Christina Magda

“ Human death seems unnatural. No matter what age we are, we usually do not want to die. The loss of a loved one shakes people up terribly. Contrary to what many believe, God did not purpose for humans to die. He created the first human, Adam, with the prospect of living forever on earth. The only time that God mentioned death was when he told Adam of the punishment for disobedience. He restricted Adam from eating the fruit of a certain tree and then warned him that if he ate from it, he would “positively die.” (Genesis 2:17) If Adam and Eve had remained obedient, they and all their descendants who were loyal to God would have lived forever on earth. Soon, Jehovah will bring back to life the majority of those who have died. Speaking of that time, the apostle Paul said: “There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—Acts 24:15.
