

Elizabeth Florek

April 21, 1926 - November 13, 2024

Elizabeth Florek, born on April 21, 1926, in Detroit, Michigan, passed away peacefully on November 13, 2024, at the age of 98. A native detroitier, Elizabeth was known for her vibrant spirit, compassion, and unwavering dedication to her family and community.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her loving husband, Arthur Florek, and her parents, Joseph and Josephine Kucharek. She was also predeceased by her dear siblings Victor, Edwin, Walter, Rudy, and Richard Kucharek, and Julie Wood.

Elizabeth is survived by her cherished children: Ruth Ann (Ken) Kuhr, Margaret (Chuck) Morreale, James Florek, David (Pamela) Florek, and Stephen (Lori) Florek. She was a proud grandmother to Tim and Andrew, who brought immense joy to her life.

She is also survived by her brother, Don (Bev) Kucharek, along with many loving nieces and nephews.

A woman of immense talent and generosity, Elizabeth was deeply involved with her community. Her melodic voice graced the choir at Assumption Grotto Church, where she was a dedicated member. Her love for music extended to the dance floor as well, where she was known for her lively polka dancing.

Elizabeth's passion for the Detroit Tigers was matched only by her love of baking, earning her the affectionate title of the neighborhood baker. Her beautifully decorated cakes and delicious cookies were a testament to her skill and love for bringing people together.

Elizabeth was also an active member of the St. Stanislaus Alumni community, where she maintained lifelong friendships and contributed her endless energy and creativity. Her empathy and kindness touched the lives of everyone she met, leaving a legacy of love and laughter.
