“ I have alot to say but I will keep it short. My mom has been there for me my whole life. She is the reason i am where i am. Believing in me even when i didn't. All the problems I caused when I was younger she always ran to my rescue. This is a sad time for all who knew her. We will all move on i have learned from her death. Maybe chasing money isn't the correct way to go about life (thats the way I have been living). Spend time with family and loved ones. We never know how long we have or them for that matter. Love you Mum i know your in a better place out of pain

“ On day, while visiting my mother-in-law Linda, I walked in the door and Aunt Betty said, "Oh good, your here! Go make some coffee." Then she said hello. That same day I finally convinced her to sit outside with her sister Linda, my brother-in-law Joe, my husband Trevor, our dear friend Julie, and myself to get some fresh air. We were at the top of the ramp, Aunt Betty in her wheelchair with me pushing her. I asked her if I should run down the ramp. She flat out said "Yes". I briskley walked down the ramp, we had a good roll going, and all of the sudden, Aunt Betty throws her arms up in the air and screams "weeeeeee". We laughed so hard and she told me to do it again. I take comfort in knowing that you are not alone in heaven. Bring our love to those you are meeting once again, mom (Linda), Aunt Marge, and Uncle Bill as well as Grandma and Grandpa Searcy. I will miss you greatly Aunt Betty.

“ Betty and I worked together since I was an intern at Sacred Heart in 1984 and much later in 1993, I ended up being her boss in the admissions department. She was one of the sweetest ladies I ever knew! I wish I could come to pay my respects, but I live up in the Thumb now and am afraid the water will ice over on the roads. I will say a prayer for all of her loved ones--I loved her a great deal!

“ Mum and I have been coffee buddy's for the past 3 years... I have 46728478 stories that I hope to put on to paper before Tuesday, and Wednesday to share... I lost my mother when I was 20, and for MANY years it was so rough for me to open up to someone in that kind of way, like over 10 years, Betty (Mum) took me in right away as a part of the family, even before she even knew me well, her and I developed a special relationship, more like best friends, but when I had rough times she would be so loving and motherly. Mum never treated me like I was not a part of her family, she even said that she was so happy Paul found a good girl to settle down with, cause she knew he was happy... I will miss here every single day of my life, I also will cherish her advice and push forward, and be strong! I Love You Mum, with my whole heart!!! We both said that to one another a bunch of times, I will keep your loving heart, strong soul, and smile in my heart and mind forever....

Im so sorry to hear the bad news. Elizabeth was a great person, kind and strong and freindly. Heaven has another angel. She'll be up in heaven with Chuck. I love them both. Im praying for the families and freinds. They have their wings and are free from pain and suffering . Jesus met her at the gate of heaven, took her hand and lead her into heaven. She's safe from all harm. She's a wonderful lady. Thank you Rhonda Smith-Dudis

“ I am so sorry to hear that your Mom has passed. I spent some time with my Mom and her this past spring. She exhibited through love how sibilings really care for one another. Aunt Betty woke up in the morning and made whatever treats my Mom even briefly mentioned the day before. She tried to comfort her, my brothers and me any way she could. Sometimes we can become, somewhat disconnected from our family, but I had a grateful Month to reestablish my relationship with Betty. She is a wonderful, caregiving person who really helped me those last days with my Mom. I will miss here greatly. Joe

“ Aunt Betty was always such a cheerful and loving woman. She is certainly going to be missed by everyone. Our hearts and prayers are with all of you. I remember how she always put all of you first. She wanted nothing more than to see each and every one of you to succeed.

I am so sorry of your loss. I had spent time with Betty while I was there visiting Linda. She had such a kind heart. She made the best strawberry pancakes! She always wanted to feed us. I think that is the Searcy way. We can be comforted knowing she no longer is in pain and I know she is up in heaven with Linda and my mom Marge all three sisters reunited with their parents too! What a glorious time that would be.
