“ Today we had to say goodbye to a truly amazing woman. I called her Grandma from the day I met her because she always made me feel like part of the family, she invited a stranger and his kids into her family with open arms and made us feel like we have always been a part of the family. I can't say how much that meant to Kenzie, Alec, Charlie, and myself they only ever saw you as great grandma and that was because of how amazing you were. There is no question in my mind to why your family is so amazing they had a perfect example to learn from. Thank you for everything you did in your life, thank you for my Mother Jane and my wife Lauren, I wish this day would of never come, the world has truly lost someone special that can't be replaced. I won't forget our talks and your laugh, I just wish we could of had more. I miss you and I love you Grandma.

“ My Grandma was a wonderful and amazing lady. She laughed when my dad and I got into a friendly quarrel, as well as taking care of me when I was in my younger years. She also took my side when I debated with my dad whether over who would shovel the snow outside. It was fun spending time with my Grandma (while my dad shovels snow). I had a wonderful time guiding my Grandma around my old school, we played games, talked, and took memory filled pictures. My Grandma was also religious, going to Mass every week. She was very kind in everything she did, and truly the most wonderful and kindest lady. I love my Grandma, and appreciate everything she has done! - Love John.
