“ To Elizabeth's family and friends, please accept my sincere condolences. Death at any age is tragic because death is an enemy that takes our loved ones from us and leaves a painful void in our lives. But our Loving Creator Jehovah God has promised mankind that He will destroy death..forever!(1Corinthians 15:26).Also He has promised,through his dear Son Christ Jesus that all "those in the memorial tombs will...come out"(John 5:28,29)May you find comfort in what the Holy Bible really teaches. “ Dear Nancy,
I was reading the paper and waiting for Wally to bring my mom home from the hospital and saw your last name. So sorry about your mom. Flooded me with memories of how your mom took care of me during our high school days...especially the homemade strawberry jam sandwiches.
Nothing new with me except I am divorced and have breast cancer. E me if you would like to talk...I would love to hear from you. Hi to Dave!

“ Dear Family,
We were deeply sorry to hear about the loss of your mother, grandmother and friend. She was a very special lady and my mother talked highly of her. May the pain and sorrow over time not hurt as much knowing that God took her on a peaceful journey where she has been reunited with your dad, so many other relatives. God Bless you. You will you remain in our prayers.
