“ Cheryl and Scott,
We are so sorry to hear about your mom.
We did not know she was sick this time.
May God be with you and your families at this difficult time in your lives.
Someday our families will all be reunited again when we meet our Lord. I know that is hard to hear at this time, but that is what has helped us when we lost our loved ones, that and recalling the good times and memories we hold close.##imported-begin##Carol & George Ivkov, Aunt Ethel##imported-end##

“ Dear Cheryl and Scott, Mom and I worked together many years ago at the Missile Plant on Van Dyke and 16 Mile Rd. I remember when she and your dad got married - September 12, 1964. My sister was married the same day and my husband's buddy, too. We went to three weddings so it's easy to remember. Your parents played cards with us and went to movies, etc. We socialized with them and another couple - Jean and Dave Martina. We were young girlfriends and newlyweds together. What fun we had. They lived in an apartment in Warren on MacArthur then moved to Sterling - was it Constitution. Cheryl was already born then. I was sorry to read about your dad's death a few years ago. We lost touch with each other but I still hold good memories of our time together many years ago. Betty was bubbly, effervescent really. Always laughing. Her strawberry blond hair bouncing when she walked. I thought about her often over the years and am so sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Karen Collins##imported-end##
