“ Today would have been your 75th birthday. Wow! Can you imagine the fire on top of THAT cake? Time sure has gone by quickly since you left us. And so many things have changed. But what remains steadfast is the pain in my heart...it will never go away. Although today will bring many tears, at the same time it somehow brings a smile to my face. I miss you Mom and I love you.##imported-begin##Kim##imported-end##

“ Dear Mom - I frequently visit this site. For some reason, it makes me feel nearer to you, especially when that picture of your smiling face appears. I can't believe it's almost two years already. I really really miss you. I wish we'd had more time together...I wish that it was me instead of you...I wish I hadn't taken for granted that you would always be here...I wish I could touch you and tell you how much I love you. I miss you more than any words could ever express. I wonder if there will ever be a day when this pain doesn't strike with a fresh blow. I hope that I will be deserving enough to end up in heaven so that I can see your beautiful face once again. I hold you close to my heart and I think of you every day. I love you. “ Wow. What more can I say. I have never been more at awe at about anything in this world. The love, the friendship, the loyalty, the number of people who loved you and who you touched in some way that have come and gone the last the three days. And the number of people who love us and support us because we love you. All of your grandchildren - again Mom - Wow. You and all of us can be nothing but proud and I know you were so very proud of them. They are so so very special. The love, the support, the respect - for you, for us. They are all such very very good kids with such huge hearts - partly because of who you are. We are all going to be okay Mom. I felt that today with certainty. I felt for sure that we love each other and will always take care of each other and be there for each other. All of us. Sisters, husbands, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, friends - whoever we are - we are family. I love you Mom and I already miss you. Kathy##imported-begin##Kathy##imported-end##

“ Kathy, Kim, Sue, Gina and Ray and all your families.

How can we ever really express our sorrow at the loss of your mom, Betty. She was a terrific woman, funny, caring and very strong. We saw how much she loved her family and was always there for you. She was a proud mom and grandmother. I will never forget the bond I felt with her in recent years. She will be missed by many, however she will always remain in our hearts##imported-begin##gillian and duane##imported-end##

“ To know Bettie her is to love her. She will live on in the hearts of all of us. Those who live in the hearts of others.... Never die

Love Lives On

*Those we love are never really lost to us--
we feel them in so many special ways-- through friends they always cared about
and dreams they left behind,
in beauty that they added to our days...
in words of wisdom we still carry with us and memories that never will be gone...*

*Those we love
are never really lost to us--
for everywhere their special love lives on.

“ Mom,

Throughout your illness I watched your pain and suffering and was amazed by your courage and strength. You are the bravest woman I will ever know. I love you more than words can say and you will be in my heart every minute of every day. You are finally at peace with the love of your life and knowing that will keep my heart smiling. I will miss you so very much but I know you will be watching over each and every one of us and will keep us safe. I love you Mom.
