“ Dear Shirley, Tom, Pam & Cathy:

I am so sorry for your loss. Shirley, I know your mom was your best friend and you will always miss her presence. I went through the same with my mom and will always miss her, but I do look back and see how rich her life was and how much her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren meant to her and that she did have a long and fruitful life. Always think of the good times and you will get through these rough times ahead of you. God Bless you and your family. See you soon.

“ Tom, Shirley and family.

At moments like this words can hardly express what you are feeling. The only ease we can have is through our faith in Jesus Christ. Imagine mom in the arms Jesus and you will someday see her again.

If you need anything call me.
