“ I have really great memories of going to Aunt Betty’s home on Westphalia, where she always had candies and ice cream bars for all her nieces and nephews. I also remember how she would take all of us to the park. On the lighter side of things.....Our forefathers had the telegraph, telegram and then the telephone.....but we had “just tell Aunt Betty”. All kidding aside, Aunt Betty was all about her family and very interested in how everyone was doing. All of us appreciated her graciousness and generosity over the years. She was one-of-a-kind and will be missed.##imported-begin##Jack Kaselitz##imported-end##
