Basket Full of Wishes - April 30, 2021 at 12:00 AM

“ I met Vera (Elvira Ulasevics Kozina) many years ago when we both worked at Detroit Ball Bearing. I am so sad to hear about her death. She was such a beautiful, kind and fun loving person. I was lucky enough to chose her as a Godmother for my daughter. I will miss you Vera and until we meet again I will love you always. Sending alot of prayers and sympathy to her daughter Suzy Kozuna and her sister Ingrid and her family. Mary L. Dowdy “ Rest in peace lovely lady. I worked with you for a short time but felt like I knew you a lifetime. Your kind words and smiles are forever missed.

April 29, 2021 at 12:00 AM

“ Vera was a truly one-of-a-kind lady who shared her compassion, kindness and positivity with everyone around her. She was so hard-working and absolutely loved those little ones she worked with throughout the years at Peters School. I will dearly miss our sweet Vera and I will cherish my memories of her and all our little chats.
