“ My great memory of Mr Stewart was him always having a big smile on his face and a song or two on his lips. He could break into a song at the drop of a hat and Cathy would then "Tap" to the music. I could tell Cathy got a lot of the joy of living from this wonderful man.

*You know he'll add to the joy in heaven even as he's missed here.
Our best to the family at this trying time.*

“ Thinking of Emil has always made me smile. Probably because he almost always had a smile, a song in his heart (and on his lips) and a dance in his shoes. There were trips to Chicago, Niagra Canada and those camping trips, all made more fun because he was with us. Now, he is with many of the others who were on those trips, especially his buddy Don Pavelek. Rest in the Lord, dear Emil, fill Heaven with the music of the '40's Big Bands and "Thanks for the Memories".
