“ Dear uncle erskine,

You may have passed on but your legacy will never die. You was a man of morales and principles and a true inspiration on my life. You showed me it was possible to come from a small island such as Barbados and make something of yourself against all odds. A true testament of what a man should be and for that I'm forever grateful. Really and truly wish I got to see you in the flesh before your death but god makes no mistakes. I want you to know that I love and cherish all the memories we shared give ms.bolden a kiss for me rest well UNC ! One of my heros... love neph
