“ My name is Jill Wozniak Konopitski. My Mother is Theresa Tulacz Wozniak. Esther and her family lived next door to my grandparents (Francis & Anna Tulacz) on Ferry street in Detroit. Esther and Lillian were good friends of my grandmother. Even though I was a very young girl I have lots of memories of them. I remember leaving my grandmothers house and going next door and just walking in and sitting at the table for breakfast. I would always ask for Chrissy, but she was at school. They would just call my grandmother and tell her I was there-I was probably only 4. My grandmother always knew if she couldn't find me I would be there. I remember Esther making me noodles with butter and milk. I remember her always giving me suckers and cookies, that's probably why I always went over there. One time I remember asking for a frozen lindy but aunt Lillian gave me coffee and I did not like it and got really mad and went and told my grandma they were giving yucky stuff. I am now 58 and still do not drink coffee. It's funny the silly things I remember. Most of all I just remember her being so kind to me. I know Esther and Lillian were such good friends with my Grandmother-she always went places with them and talked about them. I know they are in Heaven together . May she rest in Peace. And Yes Chrissy I have lots of memories of you taking me for walks and playing with me.

“ Very sorry to hear this about your Mom Chris. In heaven I'm sure Mary was the first to greet her and walk with her to meet Jesus.
