“ Gene was a man to be admired. He loved his big family and was loved by all of them. He kept an active life until his illnesses got the best of him. We'll definitely miss seeing his smiling face at family gatherings. Rest in Peace....you deserve it. Bill & Cheryl “ Great memories of my siblings and I heading down to Gene & Bob's station on Asbury & 7 mile. We lived 3/4th's of a block north on Murray Hill. They both were so nice to little kids trying to get the juicy fruit gum for a penny out of their machines. Gene was far more than a "client" and ALWAYS a pleasure to meet with once a year. He gave a young family man (my Dad, Bob) a shot to do his books, when that young guy was just starting a practice on his own, with 7 kids and a wife to feed. The rest as they say, was history. God rest his soul. He is at home with your Mom now. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace. John Bukowski for his Mom (92 now) and all of his siblings. "The bookkeeper family".

“ Gene was one of the sweetest man I have ever known. He talked about his daughters and his late wife often and how proud he was of them and how much he loved them
