“ My dearest Janice, cousins are so few and far between that I am so sorry we have not kept in closer touch. I can imagine Gene's reunion in heaven with your Mom & Dad and other relatives who are welcoming him into God's Holy Home. My prayers are for him and with you. “ my dearest condolences to the family. the scriptures hold out a beautiful hope for loved ones who have passed away. We read at John5:28,29- All those on the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." the safest place for anyone to be is in God's memory. peace on earth when these ones are resurrected is another promise contained in the Bible. “ I am so sorry to hear of Gene's passing. It was a real shock to hear of it at the 12:00 mass at St.Edmund's when Janice, his sister came in to tell me. Even though I only knew Gene & his sister, Janice-for a few years, Gene was always a sweet man who especially loved my grandson, Andy, who would always run to him when we came in to St. Edmunds every Sunday. He always let Andy sit with him & help keep him calm in church which helped me a lot. Andy always wanted to go to communion with Gene and would walk in front of him with his walker. Andy and I will miss him deeply. My deep condolences to you, Janice. I will pray for him that we will be with Jesus in heaven.##imported-begin##Amy Geier & Andy Miller##imported-end##
