“ Our deepest sympathies and prayers go out to Lindsey, our future daughter-in-law, and her parents, Diane and Maynard. Losing a parent at any age is hard to go through, but when they get to be 88 (or 90 like my mom), you think they are going to live forever. My heart aches for you as you go through this very difficult time. But you know that she is not in pain anymore and is sitting in the lap of luxury surrounded by God's love.

A big hug and lots of love,

Joyce and Jim Genat

“ I am so sorry for your lost. The lost of a loved one can leave you feeling very sad. Some people start asking themselves questions about our Heavenly father. I would like to share a scripture or two with you. just to let you know God cares about us and suffering the loss of a loved one is not Gods will. please turn in your Bible to (John 3:16) you see what great length God went to enjoy a life He purposed us to live. Also Revelations(21:3,4) also will assure you of Gods purpose for mankind. for more info visit www.JW.org
