“ I remember my Aunt Evelyn as being full of life. She was my Mother's little sister. She loved to "visit" and talk with family and friends and always seemed to be ready to have a good time. Her passing is very sad for me since she was my last link to my mother's generation in our family. I will miss her and her wonderful sense of style. Rest in peace, Aunt Evelyn. Give Mom my best... We will be together again.

Grandma - I was so blessed to have you be such a huge part of my life. We spent every single holiday together, you were there when both my babies were born. My children were so lucky to have a great-grandma be a big part of their life too. Not many people are as lucky to have a grandma like you. You helped raise my kids when they were little. When Sarah was a baby and you would come over to my house to watch her, my house would be spotless when I got home from work. I don't know how you did it with watching a baby, but you did. I will forever miss you, but I know you and Grandpa are finally together again. He's been waiting a long time for you.....lucky for us! I love you and will see you again someday.....Love - Nora, Jeff, Sarah & Ryan
