*" And he looked upon her with exceeding tenderness, for it was she who had first sought and believed in him when he had been but a day in their city.
And she hailed him, saying: Prophet of God, in quest for the uttermost, long have you searched the distances for your ship.
And now your ship has come, and you must needs go.
Deep is your longing for the land of your memories and the dwelling place of your greater desires; and our love would not bind you nor our needs hold you. " --Kahlil Gibran*

I remember this photo of all the Reich kids. I always loved it and the way that Butch had his arm around Maggie and at the same time also touching John's shoulder.

“ *His contagious smile and the devilish twinkle in his eye, his unwavering faith and love of Connie and family made Butch the man he is. He will not be forgotten.
May the warmth of your fond memories soon overshadow the grief of your loss.
You are in my thoughts and Prayers Connie & family...
Love you, Ellen Frazer*

“ Uncle Butch,

*Thanks for taking Mark and I fishing when we were youngsters.. I especially remember the trips to Lakeville Lake. Thanks for waking us up at 5am, even though I didnt understand why so early. Now I get it.. I had many good times hanging out at the Culberston house, playing baseball, football, you name it. I really enjoyed having family in the same neighborhood.. Uncle Butch, Aunt Connie, Cousins Mark, Lisa, and Scotty.
Thanks again for the fond memories.*

Sincerely, Marty Komer
