“ Aunt Fran,
You had the best voice ever! You will be missed so much!

Linda and Emmy, I am so sorry for you loss!!

Linda, please make sure you take care of yourself!

Today devotional -

Let Me help you get through this day. there are many possible paths to travel between your getting up in the morning and your lying down at night. Stay alert to the many choice-points along the way, being continually aware of My Presence. You will get through this day one way or another. One way is to moan and groan, stumbling along with shuffling feet. This will get you to the end of today eventually, but there is a better way. You can choose to walk with Me as much as you need. There will still be difficulties along the way, but you can face them confidently in My strength. Thank Me for each problem you encounter, and watch to see how I transform trials into blessings.

I Corinthians 10:10; Luke 1:79

If she wasn't so awesome, you wouldn't miss her so much and it wouldn't hurt so much. Take time to celebrate how wonderful she is and how she made your lives so much better. We will all see her again.

blessings,

“ Two boyhood memories and one adult memory.

1 As a very young boy my aunt Fran and uncle Butch would pick me up and take me into their small home to spend the weekend. What wonderful times we had, sleeping on the floor and making popcorn on Saturday night .

2 Aunt Fran worked as a candy girl at a movie theater in downtown Detroit. Once and awhile on Saturday she would take me to work with her. She would make me a giant bag of popcorn and I would sit with the projectionist all day ,and he let me pick out what cartoons i wanted. What a joy !!!

3 As an adult I moved back to Detroit after serving in the Navy. Had no job, no home, no money. My aunt Fran and Uncle Butch opened their home and shared everything with us.

What great people they were.

Miss you both
