

Frances Anne Wojcik

September 3, 1922 - April 27, 2017

Frances was the matriarch of her family. She was the mother of 4, Granny Franny to 12, and great-grandma to 2. She was born in Wilkes-Barre, PA, where as a child she developed a passion for dancing which she maintained until she was 88 years old as a high level round dancer. When her family moved to Detroit, she met John, her beloved husband, whom she was married to for 35 years. Together they danced, traveled, and raised their 4 children until John passed away in 1986. Naturally Frances transitioned into her role as a matriarch and ensured the years that followed were filled with love, family, and laughter. She never missed a birthday, dance recital, graduation, award ceremony, or wedding. At family events, she led the conga lines and competed in intense games of "left, right, center." She ensured her grandchildren received ample supplies of sliced apples and socks and underwear at Christmas, and always provided charm and laughter with her wit. But above all, Frances was the catalyst of innumerable and unforgettable memories her family will always cherish.

Loving wife of the late John. Dear mother of Diane (Konstantinos) Argirokastritis, Doreen (Raymond) Johnsen, Gary (Karrie) Wojcik, and Donna (Michael) Dunn. Loving and proud grandmother of Christina, Ryan (Annie), Antonio (Evelyn), Melissa, Monica (Shawn), Diana, Zachary, Olivia, Linda, Caroline, Megan (Michael), and Lukas. Dear great grandmother of Addison and Eleni. Dear sister of John (the late Florence) Opalko, and Theresa

Opalko.

“ I shared three grandchildren with Fran, our Zach, Megan, and Luke. Births, Christenings, First Communions, Conformations and Birthdays.

I learned the most important things to her were the Catholic faith and her family. She read her prayer book daily with her rosary at her side. Her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, FINALLY!, she would say, gave her the most joy in life.

I sat next to her at the wedding of the granddaughter we shared this past weekend. She said she felt as though she was in heaven, they are all here, even John. What a wonderful way to remember Grandma, enjoyment, dancing, and the fun of leading the conga line one last time. And most of all, staying until the very end of the evening to be with her family as long as she could.

I share the sorrow for your family in your time of loss and celebrate the memories she left in your hearts.
