“ I'm sorry about your family members passing.
I was doing a search on my name and I saw this. I had to look to see who the other Frances J. Minor was, I go by Franie though. My middle initial and hers are the same.
Again, I'm sorry!

My dear Mrs. Minor,

Teen years for boys are very tough even with both parents, so when I lost my mother when I was only 15 years old it was particularly tough for me....she was my friend and cheerleader. But sure enough, you stepped up to the plate to take over for her after she passed away. You taught me that I had what it took to be successful and pushed me to follow my dream of becoming a respiratory therapist for the rest of high school and college. I love you so much and will miss you in my own selfish way. At the same time I honor you....for what you left behind, the seeds you planted, the way you made the world a better place by doing so many positive things. At the same time, I am also very happy for you because I know as a result of the way you lived your life, you are now in the arms of Jesus Christ! May you also share a little time with my mother to catch her up on what has been going on with her Matthew if you have not done so already! Thank you so much for being my cheerleader, my friend, my second mother!

Love always!

Matthew, your other crazy son.##imported-begin##Matt and Shelly Kilroy##imported-end##
