“ To the Smolinski Family, May each of you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) Take care,###imported-begin##valerie thompson###imported-end##

“ Words cannot express how sorry our whole family is about the loss of our dearest friend Fran. We will always remember Fran as a very loving and caring friend. During Fran's and Dave's visit in Germany also my wife Sybille had the chance to meet Fran. Even having a barrier of language they understood each other and Fran and Sybille became very good friends in no time. Thank you Fran for your incredible kindness and we all know that you deserve the greatest place in heaven. God bless Fran and her family. Dave my friend, we are very sorry for being unable to be a better comfort to you in these days of mourning, but be assured that our thoughts are with you.###imported-begin##Hans with Sybille, Melanie and Patrick###imported-end##

“ David and Family,
So sorry for your loss of Fran. David, I was married to Denise who worked with Fran at Alexanders Salon back in the late 70's. We lived on Fairport and Fran lived on Westphalia. (I think) I remember her being a sweet person, and I remember hanging out with you guys having fun. Fran is with the Lord now, and all the glory that come with that time is with her now. Take Care.##imported-begin##Edward Platte##imported-end##

“ My dearest Dave, Jim, Sharon, Ed, Marlene,
Stan and girls,

There are really no words that I could write that would express or convey my heartfelt sympathy for you at this time. We will miss our dear Fran.

There are however many words that would describe Fran. Above all she was a person whose spirituality shined through her, she was always in-service to others. Fran's loving, kindness, compassion and giving heart outshined most whom walk on this earth. Her soft words and gentle hands, the way she would always say, "I understand," as she was always feeling whatever was being described to her. A rare beautiful gem, that filled our world with love. A dear friend, one who always reached and gave to anyone that needed a gentle touch.

Although, our lives were busy and we didn't always talk or see one another, we never lost our sisterhood, the bond has always and will always be there until we meet again.

My prayers and thoughts are with each one of you.##imported-begin##Audrey Polk##imported-end##

“ Fran was my cousin, niece to my parents, and close friend of my mom. While living far apart kept us from seeing each other often, I have very fond memories of my visits to my original hometown Detroit and seeing Fran, her brothers and parents. She will be greatly missed by everyone. I will miss that great smile she had every time I saw her! God bless Frances and her family.##imported-begin##Randy Mysliviec##imported-end##

“ I am so sad to hear Fran has passed away. We were great friends years ago in college, but we've lost touch over the years. I have great memories of Fran--great talk and great laughter. She will be missed by me.
