“ Frank & Marion were our dear friends in Venice, FL...2001-2016. Frank assisted my Aunt Mary Lambert Ritchey with her home, painting, yard, etc., in Venice, FL from about 1980 until she relocated Back Home in IN November 2001. Frank took her to her nephew's funeral (John T. Fryback) in Bradenton, FL and attended the funereal with her also. John died unexpectedly at the age of 54. We bought Aunt Mary's home in Venice in 2001. Frank continued to mow our yard several years. He & Marion were so helpful to us in many ways, any way we asked. We loved their homemade Christmas cookies, such a special treat and pizza party on Superbowl Sunday in their home plus other fond memories. They were true sincere Christian people. Our thoughts, hearts and prayers are with their family during this difficult, sad time and in the days to come. We will always treasure our memories with them. They were a blessing to all who knew them.
