“ Please except my deepest sympathies during this time of sorrow. Having experience such a sad occasion myself, I know how important it is to have close family and friends to comfort you during this tough time. The Bible can also be a source of comfort. Revelation 21:4 states, 'He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more'. Yes, death will be swallow up forever (Isaiah 25:8). May you cherish your memories of Mr Philippi and draw comfort from the bible.##imported-begin##Denise##imported-end##

“ I spent many a time in my younger years talking with Francis, (whom to this day I still call "Mr Phillip") over the fence. It seems we always mowed the lawn on the same schedule! He was never too busy to talk and he was always very nice to me. He was very well liked by everyone and he had a big heart. I was saddened to hear of his passing but find comfort knowing that he is now free to roam the heavens untethered by his earthly bonds. And knowing him, I'm certain he will be with us always. Such a great guy he was. I will miss him.##imported-begin##Jon Benavides##imported-end##

“ My sincerest condolences and love go to your family, especially Marie, at this time in your lives. I know none of the kids would know who I am, but our family lived about 5 houses up the street on Fortner from you. My parents are Vic and Betty Smith. I have periodically kept in touch with Mr. Phillippi over the last year or so, especially after my mom passed away. They would always tell me about their visits when they went back there. All my love and prayers to all of you.##imported-begin##Venee' (Smith) Hetrick##imported-end##
