“ Donna, Jennifer and TJ - We are so sorry to hear of Frank's passing. It is still so unbelievable. We remember the times he came to the cottage to fish and told us stories of the ones that got away. He will truly be missed. Our thoughts and prayers and with all of you at this time.

“ First, let me say , I didn't know, Frank J. Kulinski Jr, but I do know how it feels to lose a love one in death. You forget them. Why? Because we have pictures, videos, vacations, picnics, and gatherings with them. At Isaiah 26:19 says," Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning. And the Earth will let those powerless in death come to life." That is good news. Wouldn't you say. Please read it in your Bible. Laurie

“ I do so well remember Frankie, as I know him I became good friends with his parents. I remember how respectful he and his sister were. They also treated their neighbors very well, shoveling snow or cutting the lawn and would not take anything for it. I have not seen him since his mother's funeral.
To his wife and children I offer my sympathy and hope that you remember the person he was.
