“ I had many of good times with Frank at work and on the golf course. He was a good friend and i will miss him. I had no idea that Frank had health issues since we last talked about a year ago. I found out late today about Franks passing and i will cherish him in my memories. God bless you my friend.

“ Frank was such a nice man and a good friend of our family. I remember one Christmas where we had an incident where something happened to our holiday ham and Frank saved Christmas with a rescue ham. He was a good friend to my father who met him through work and I remember him as a kind, and wonderful person who loved his family and friends. He will truly be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family, friends and loved ones during this difficult time.

“ To Frank's Family,

The news of Frank's passing has come as a shock to myself and my family. I knew Frank from his days as a sales executive in the packaging industry and ultimately developed a personal relationship beyond salesman to buyer. Frank enjoyed life and especially his family His fun-loving, gregarious personality was larger than life and when Frank was around things just seemed to be brighter. Be consoled in your sorrow that Frank touched so many people positively in his all too short life on this earth. May God bestow his blessings on Frank and his family at this trying time. Our sympathy and prayers go with you.
