Tribute Wall

“ Frank used to say in a 100 years who'll know or care. Well Dutch.... There will be many who will know.... You made a difference in alot of peoples lives, just throw a rock you'll find many. I know you are already sitting with Doris looking at the waters edge. I'm just picturing you and Harold and Art and Fat Albert playing some cards and laughing to tears. You will be Missed.

“ Frank G. Nutt, Jr. had eleven (11) godchildren of whom I was one. He was the ideal Godfather. I admired him for his exploits as a successful businessman, family man, and sportsman. He won many insurance sales awards, including a Panama Canal cruise with Aunt Doris. Over 50 years, he would eventually manage an 8-figure portfolio for his loyal clientele. He was a man of integrity with a sterling character.

His deep sea fishing trophy spanned the width of his fireplace in his family room. With Aunt Doris and their eight (8) children, we watched Neil Armstrong on TV in their family room when the astronaut became the first man to walk on the moon on July 20, 1969.

He loved the outdoors. When he was 16, Jim Parry took him hunting and told him the story of how Jim and Grandpa, Frank G. Nutt, Sr., dared each other when they were 16, in 1921, to swim across the Detroit River to Canada. Uncle Frank later enjoyed golf tournaments in Canada and the USA, including the multi-state Nutt Cup golf tournaments hosted by the Golf Nuts, including his brother Thomas, my father.

Uncle Frank cultivated a love of nature and great adventure in youth. He once built a tree fort in four (4) trees for me and my cousin Kevin for our 12th and 14th birthdays, respectively. Equipped with a front porch, a "Tarzan-type" rope for quick descents, screened sliding glass windows, peek holes and a hidden back-up door lock behind "No Trespassing" signs, the tree fort was just a symbol of his generous heart and gifted hands.

Remarkable providential factoid: The birth order of the eight (8) children of Frank and Doris was the exact same birth order of the eight (8) children of his father, Frank Sr., and mother, Mary Louise: girl, boy, girl, boy, boy, girl, boy.

Before he married Aunt Doris in the Roman Catholic Church, Uncle

Frank served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. He believed in God and Country. We prayed together at the end of our last visit. I may be an Oxford Fulbright alum but he is the epitome of an educated person according to one quote: "An educated person is not necessarily a university person, but a person with certain subtle spiritual qualities that make him happy when alone, calm in adversity, just in his dealings, rational and sane in all the affairs of life."

We will cherish our memories of Frank G. Nutt, Sr., forever.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all my cousins. I can't say enough in regards to my Uncle Frank. He had a close relationship with my father John Nutt. I have so many great memories of Uncle Frank. Growing up I looked up to him as he was an amazing Uncle. Always had great stories and was so genuine to everybody. He always went out of his way to make sure we were taken care of during family reunions and our golf outings in Canada. Uncle Frank had a smile and laugh that was contagious. I will never forget the Dutchman. Such a great husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. Love you and I will never forget my Uncle Frank. Peace be with you and the Nutt family. “ When I hear the word Pops one person comes to mind. His life stories were each like an old movie you had seen and wanted to remember. He was animated and real with a heart that was as big as the body. Now with Doris I feel they continue to be as one watching over their great families, left behind. Knowing his family I can attest to the fact that he delivered to the rest of us some wonderful , caring and really quality family members to carry on his legacy. Thanks Frank for a job well done and we will continue to remember you through the gifts you and Doris created for us to Love and enjoy.

“ When i think of Uncle Frank I picture him kind of hanging back with a grin on his face and zinging out one-liners that were always hilarious. He always made it a point to include me in some story and that meant the world to me. A great man. Uncle Frank you lived an admirable life.
