“ Frank, Danielle and family.
With deepest sympathy from our family to yours at this most difficult time. Although we all know it's part of life it's just so painful when we reach this phase of life. Please take comfort knowing that your father is at peace and in no pain. He's taught you so much and that is something that will live with you forever. God Bless you and your family!##imported-begin##David Kowalczyk##imported-end##

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Unfortunately death is something we cannot escape. However it is times like this when we need to hear some comforting words. We are told in the Bible that our loved ones will be ressurected. They will have the opportunity to come back to a paradise earth where there will be no sickness, old age or death. Under these conditions we will have the opportunity to live forever. Yes death will vanish. I sincerely hope you find these words encouraging.##imported-begin##Nitisha Walker##imported-end##

“ It is said that God brings people in need into the lives of Christians for a reason, for a season, or for a lifetime. Whichever this was, I have cherished this short time in Frank's life, and in the rest of your family's, and my small contribution in your time of need. I remain at your service.

You will remain always in my prayers.
