“ Dear family of Fred's

Fred lives next door to me, he is a very nice, friendly, funny man. The night before he left for Tennessee he came over and joked with me cause I was cleaning my car and he wanted to know when I was going to do his. He talk to me about his son and told me that he would let me know how he was when he came back. I to had lost my father not to long ago and am very sad for what the family is going though. I dont really know Fred's family but you are all in my prayers.

To Fred I will miss you on wednesday nights taking are garbage out.... it always seem like we always ended up taking are garbage to the street at the exact same time and that was are weekly catch up talk.

You are in my thoughts and prayers!

“ I grew up on Fairport two doors from the "Plieths". Fred was probably in his late teens or early 20's. His parents (Fred and Gert) were always keeping an eye on us kids as we played with Wally. It was a great neighborhood because of families like the Plieths and I treasure the memories.##imported-begin##Elaine (Winkler) Holtzman##imported-end##

“ Uncle Fred always had a ready welcome for me each time I saw him that conveyed true warmth and caring. He was an easy person to be around because he was a great listener as well as a good conversationist. Above all, he was always upbeat and ready to joke or laugh. He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with his family during this difficult period.##imported-begin##Larry Kropfreiter##imported-end##
