“ Dear Lyn and Family,

Very sorry to hear about Fred today as I wish we could have been there for you. Fred was a Great Man! Not only as a teacher of many, but as a True Friend. We will surely miss him as he was very instrumental in helping me to become the person that I am. The jokes and the laughter will never cease, as his memory will always live in hearts. Love you much##imported-begin##Jerry and Laurie Gabryel##imported-end##

“ I will remember you fred

*At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
I remember you.*

At the blowing of the wind, I remember you.

*At the opening of buds and in the rebirth of Spring,
I remember you.*

*At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth
I remember you.*

*As long as I live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us, as I remember you.*

“ *Mrs. Sroda, Ari, and Brent,
I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. There are way to many memories I have to list and some good memories they were that will stay with me forever. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I wish I could be there to celebrate the life of such a wonderful man who always laughed at the "shinanigans" we all pulled as kids!! God Bless.###imported-begin###Kristen Barnes###imported-end###*

“ Chad,
We are so sorry to hear of your loss. I wish we would have stayed in contact over the years. Doug skated with Fred and Phil many years ago, and remembers Fred's fluid skating.

Our thoughts are with you and your family at this time of sorrow.

“ Lyn,Ari,&Brent, I will deeply miss a fun loving friend who knew how to enjoy life. He was special in many ways,always positive in his outlook on life,and looking forward to whatever lied ahead with enthusiasm.His dreams became reality with a wonderful wife,daughter and son that he loved greatly. This one is for you Brent, your dad was the fastest skater in the Shores throughout the 60's, your uncle Phil can attest to that. He loved the game of hockey and you allowed him to stay in the game all the years you played. Fred I will miss you but never forget you. God needs you to lace'em up in heaven, rest in peace.##imported-begin##jack bellomo##imported-end##

“ Fred, what can I say? You were a barrel of laughs. No matter what the occasion, you had something witty and hilarious to say! I know that you are now comfortable and at peace enjoying everything you loved while you were here. I'll eat plenty of cherries at the Cherry Festival next year for you!

You will always be remembered by those that loved and admired your intelligence and wit. You were such a wonderful person and I'm sorry I didn't get to spend more time with you.

You will be missed (but never forgotten) by so many people.##imported-begin##Melissa##imported-end##

“ Dad, I will always be your little girl. Daddies pumpkin, people say I have your sense of humor, mixed in with a little of mom's then my own, I know you and I are one of a kind. You were always there when I needed you, whether it be to cry or laugh on or bail me out of trouble. You left us too soon but in my heart you will always remain. Till we meet again in heaven daddy, I will be running open arms towards you be prepared.###imported-begin###Ari Sroda###imported-end##

“ To the family of a real great guy. We went to Lake Shore with Fred. He always had a smile and a hello to everyone. In recent years I could never go up to Shores shopping center or Home Depot without running into Fred. He always made time to stop and chat, I remember the last time I saw him at Home Depot all he talked about was retiring and moving up north. I am so sorry his dreams didn't make it but I know he is up there in heaven with all our old classmates. Your family is in our hearts and prayers.###imported-begin###Joe and Jan Goddyn###imported-end##

“ I will dearly miss Fred up north at the cabin. I will miss his laughter and joking around personality. Especially won't forget all the times we got together to figure out the best way to get the cabin ready for retirement. Even cutting the tree down together without hitting the cabin.
I know your now home and at peace! I will miss you dearly....

“ Lyn, I am so sorry to hear about Fred. Although I only knew him from Northwood I could tell he was a really great person - very devoted, loving and dedicated. Everyone in class just loved him and how could you not with the laughter and smiles that he brought to class with him. My prayers are with you and your family as you proceed forward without Fred by your side but in your heart forever.##imported-begin##paula pore##imported-end##

“ Fred was one of the funniest people I have ever met. He used to say such funny and stupid things and I would crack up and Lyn would yell at me because I was just egging him on. He will definitely be making people laugh in heaven. My love and prayers go out to you Ari, Brent and Lyn. One more thing, Hey Fred you want to order a greek pizza?##imported-begin##Amy Wirick##imported-end##
