

Frieda Elizabeth Champion

December 23, 1918 - January 16, 2005

Frieda Elizabeth Champion, Age 86, longtime resident of Roseville died January 16, 2005 in St. Clair Shores. She was born December 23, 1918 in Detroit. Mrs. Champion has been retired from the Detroit Public Schools for many years. She worked for Eaton Springs Manufacturing in Detroit during World War II. Mrs. Champion will be remembered for her kindness, generosity, sense of humor and her love for family and friends.

Mrs. Champion is survived by her children, James (Marie) Champion and Karen Nagle; grandchildren, Thomas Nagle, Ryan Champion, Darrin Champion and Donna Nagle; great-grandchildren Brendan Champion and Allison Champion; and her brother Arthur Goller. She was predeceased by her husband, James H. Champion; brother, Ervin Goller and sister-in-laws, Rosie Goller and Rose Goller.

Previous Events

Service

JAN 19. 12:00 PM (ET)

Wasik Funeral Home - Warren
11470 Thirteen Mile Road
Warren, MI 48093
(586) 751-3131
warren@wasikfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ I love you and miss you so much already Gramps!##imported-begin##Donna Nagle##imported-end##

---

January 21, 2005 at 04:12 PM

“ So sorry to hear your grandma passed away Donna. She lived a long life and will be greatly missed by you and your mom. Love you, Cathy##imported-begin##Cathy Staniek##imported-end##

---

January 21, 2005 at 11:57 AM

“ Although I only knew Frieda for a short time, she had this spunk to her and a smile that made me know she was a great woman. I'm sure she touched many lives during her life here on earth. Rest in peace, Frieda. You'll be missed.##imported-begin##Pauline Koulouberis##imported-end##

---

January 19, 2005 at 11:35 PM

“ I love you Grandma.##imported-begin##Thomas Nagle##imported-end##

---

January 17, 2005 at 05:12 PM