“ Auntie Gail,
It won't be the same at the cottage without you. I will miss our talks together around the kitchen table every summer and your delicious baked goods. I will miss your hugs before we leave to drive back to Toronto and how you always made me feel like you were happy to see me. I will miss you!! XO

Love,
Terri

“ Sorry about your lost there is something I would like to share with you about a promise. That Jehovah our God has tould us in regards to what grand things, the future holds for us . Imagine a place where there . Will be no more pain, sarrow , death . This is the promise God will give us according to his word the bible at Pasm 37:29. These things will be of the past.

“ Dear family, I am sorry about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Gail F. Nedvidek. Releasing and expressing grief is not always easy; especially, when you have to seem strong for other family members. Talk about your feelings to a “true companion” who will listen patiently and sympathetically can bring a measure of relief. (Proverbs 17:17) And if the listener is another bereaved person you may be able to glean some practical suggestions on how you can cope. Never keep things bottle in. Please find comfort in these additional bible scriptures Luke 23:43 and John 5:28, 29.
