“ I only had the privilege to have met Mr. Varney only a few times, but in those few times you could tell just how much he was loved and admired by his family. That in itself, says a lot about a man. He has touched many lives and will surely be missed by all. "A true friend is someone who reaches for your hand and touches your heart." It was clear that he was a true friend to many. May God Bless him and his family that he left behind. Sincerely, Katherine Dewachter##imported-begin##Katherine Dewachter##imported-end##
