“ I'm a Denby HS classmate of Gary's. In fact, he sat right behind me in Mr. Hammond's study hall, so we got to know each other's sense of humor pretty well. He was a good guy. Our class will miss him at the next reunion. My sincere condolences to his family and friends.

“ Dear Eileen,
You may recall that Gary and I worked together at Chrysler for a few years. Gary was an inspiration to me and other colleagues. He played over his pain as they say in sports and was a good employee, husband, father, grand father and especially friend. He has gone to his reward for all these things and because he was born again in Christ his Savior. We will all pray for your strength and peace going forward even as we reluctantly say farewell to our dear friend.##imported-begin##Rick Lynn##imported-end##

“ Dear Treppa Family - "When we are going through tough times in our lives, Jesus doesn't stand on the outside of our difficulties. He is in the midst of each thing we walk through in life. He is there to speak peace to us, to calm the storm, at assure us of victory, and to walk with us into a new day." I hope these comforting words help in relieving some of your sorrow. We will be keeping you in our prayers. Our son Michael is in the St Therese Youth Group with Amanda. God Bless you, The Saurine Family##imported-begin##The Saurine Family##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Treppa, Amanda, and Family,

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this extremely difficult time. May you find God's comfort and grace in the days that lie ahead rejoicing in all your memories with Mr. Treppa. I never did meet him, but if he was anything like the man Amanda talked and told me about, then I missed out on getting to know an extraordinary man. God's blessings to you and yours during this time. My deepest sympathies.

“ Dear Treppa family-

I was very saddened to hear about Mr. Treppa's passing last Tuesday.

I will always remember the love he showed towards his family and the support he always gave me (as well as the "ribbing" I received every time Michigan played Michigan State!)

My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

God bless you and be with you always.
