“ It has been many months now and I think of Gayle everyday. She was a good friend and is missed dearly. My birthday just passed and I it was very sad for me. For the past 30 years on December 31st in the morning I got a singing birthday gram via telephone, the whole song from her. I know she was singing to me, but it wasnt the same. I hope the family is well and my prayers are still with everyone.##imported-begin##Connie Richards##imported-end##

“ This message is for her wonderful family and dear friend Lori. We thought of Gayle as a member of our family and she shared with us all family events, birthdays, graduations, etc. and when one of the kids did something she didn't like she would scold them as if they were her own, she had a personal relationship with each one of them. I used to say she may not have given birth to them but she had 3 children because mine chose her and loved her dearly. Gayle was the first person they ran to when they couldn't find me, even before their Dad and she was always there when they needed her. She was a dear friend and an inspiration and I thank you all gratefully for taking such good care of her and just like everything she did she died with a sense of humor and grace. We will miss her, she was a part of our daily life in one way or another and who ever moves next store will never fill her shoes. If you need anything please let me know and thanks again for loving her and taking such good care of her.##imported-begin##kim dorazio##imported-end##

“ To my dear, sweet Aunt Gayle,

I will miss you so very much. The memories you've left imprinted on my heart will always be with me. Throughout my life you've done many things to make me feel so special...whether it was when I was 3 and brought me a pumpkin light that the "great pumpkin" accidentally left at your house instead of mine, giving me my very first pair of "real gold" earrings that made me feel like a princess when I wore them, when I turned 16 you came to my house to pick me up in the Corvette and took me out to dinner - just the two of us(that is probably my favorite) or when my husband and I bought our house, you gave me my grandmother's china set and you and I both cried. All of these things made me feel so special. Of course, there are far too many instances to recount here and now. I saw that same kindness passed to my daughter when she came along. Even though you no longer walk on this earth with us, the memories, the love, and the joy you've given to me and my family will forever remain etched in my heart.

I will love and miss you always and always tell my 4 year old daughter the wonderful stories of her great Aunt Gayle.##imported-begin##Tracey Gertcher##imported-end##

“ Gayle and I were golf partners for 25 years. She was my hero. My heart is broken. My only saving thoughts are that she is no longer in pain. She never complained and everything was always Great and she would tell you. Move forward and never look back. Love people for what they are. My life is better because of Gayle!##imported-begin##Nancy Turnquist##imported-end##

“ Aunt Gayle was a beautiful, strong and loving person. She has inspired us in so many ways and will be missed dearly! We will all cherish our memories and wonderful times we had with her.

After explaining her journey to our children, Alex (4) and Abigayle (2), Alex asked if he could see her again from an airplane in the sky.....

We are very fortunate to have had her in our lives and will forever miss her!

We love you Aunt Gayle!

“ For everything there is a season, and Gayle came into my life during a cold season. She brought life, joy and happiness into everyday. She will be missed by many. We are all better for having known her, but at this moment I feel that I am a little less now that she gone. She was a trusted friend that will be missed by many.##imported-begin##JoAnn Stock##imported-end##

“ Dear Family- it is with great sadness that these words are sent to you. Gail was a beautiful person.

My memory goes way back to my childhood playing dolls with Aunt Gail it was so much fun. Then it was getting advice about boys and later advice about cooking and men. Thank you for your gentleness Gail, Thank you for the good times we shared --- you are loved.

The Next Place by Warren Hanson

*The next place that I go
will be as peaceful and familiar as a sleepy summer Sunday and a sweet, untroubled mind.*

And yet...it won't be anything like any place I've ever been... or seen...or dreamed of in the place I leave behind.

*I won't know where I'm going,
and I won't know where I've been as I tumble through the always and look back toward the when.*

*I'll glide beyond the rainbows.
I'll drift above the sky.
I'll fly into the wonder,
without ever wondering why.*

*I won't remember getting there.
Somehow I'll just arrive.
But I'll know that I belong there and will feel much more alive than I have ever felt before.
I will be absolutely free of the things that I held onto that were holding onto me.*

*The next place that I go
will be so quiet and so still that the whispered song of sweet belonging will rise up to fill the listening sky with joyful silence, and with unheard harmonies of music made by no one playing,
like a hush upon a breeze.*

*There will be no room for darkness in that place of living light.
Where an ever-dawning morning pushes back the dying night.
The very air will fill with brilliance, as the brightly shining sun and the moon and half a million stars are married into one.*

*The next place that I go
Won't really be a place at all.
There won't be any seasons—winter, summer, spring or fall—
Nor a Monday,
Nor a Friday,
Nor December,
Nor July.
And the seconds will be standing still...
while the hours hurry by.*

*I will not be a boy
or girl,
a woman
or a man.
I'll simply be just,
simply me.
No worse or better than.*

*My skin will not be dark or light.
I won't be fat or tall.
The body I once lived in won't be part of me at all.*

*I will finally be perfect.
I will be without a flaw.*

*I will never make one more mistake,
or break the smallest law.*

*And the me that was impatient,
or was angry or unkind,
will simply be a memory.
The me I left behind.*

*I will travel empty-handed.
There is not one single thing
I have collected in my life that I would ever want to bring except....*

*The love of those who loved me,
and the warmth of those who cared.
The happiness and memories and magic that we shared.*

*Though I will know the joy of solitude...
I'll never be alone.
I'll be embraced
by all the family and friends
I've ever known.*

*Although I might not see their faces,
all our hearts will beat as one,
and the circle of our spirits
Will shine brighter than the sun.##imported-begin##Dawn & Tom

“ I met Gayle when we started golfing together in our golf league “the Golf Bags”. She loved golf and was so enjoyable to golf with. We shared so many very good times together. She always looked at the bright side and through her illness continued to golf and love life. With her matching jewelry and bright smile and sense of humor that is how I will remember my dear friend Gayle. I know she'll be golfing in heaven. Love you Gayle.###imported-begin##Shelley Rae###imported-end##

“ The past several weeks have proven what a wonderful and WELL LOVED person Gayle was. I live directly across the street from her and I can see her home from my kitchen window. The dedication of her family and friends coming and going in shifts with food, personal assistance and moral support reinforce this love for her. She was truly the kind person who's concern for other living things was shown during her several years of caring for "Garfield"(that was my name for him). He was a large scruffy orange cat that didn't seem to have a home. Gayle would keep her garage door open just enough to let him in during the winter to keep him warm and fed. She had just remarked to me about a month or so ago that she hadn't seen him lately and she was sad because she thought he hadn't made it through the winter. Hopefully they are hanging out together now. My family and I will truly miss Gayle. We know she has certainly done her time and are sure she is now in heaven smiling down on us!###imported-begin##The Baron Family###imported-end##

“ I sincerely offer my condolence. Ms. Chick’s death has no doubt cast a shadow over you as you go about your daily life because death brings us face-to-face with the fact that she is gone too soon. Her presence will be dearly missed. Despite the pain of grief, let it be your resolve to continue to work your way through bereavement.

There is “a time to weep.” (Ecclesiastes 3:4) Yet, Jesus said “Do not let your be troubled”. (John 14:27) Sometimes we may feel paralyzed by events such as this. Remember: God can help you to endure any and every problem you may face. He will give you the “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7)

I did not personally know Ms. Chick. When I read about her I know she was dearly loved.

“ Gayle, "You have been born again, and this new life did not come from something that dies, but from something that cannot die. You were born again through God's living message that continues forever." 1 Peter 1:23. She was a beautiful person who fought a hard battle with the help of her loving family.
