“ I went to Jr High & High School with Gaynor. We also worked at Burlington Coat Factory together after school. My late husband, Pete Ishioka, and Gaynor were friends & he would tease & joke all the time that he & Gaynor were parents bc they shared an egg or fake baby in school. I'm so sorry she's also passed on. My heart goes out to the family♡

“ I will always remember the times I could go to Gaynor and receive the best tips on things that I will carry with me, always. She was a wealth of information and so creative and fun to talk to, just like her mom. I may not have been close to her, being many miles apart, but whenever I talked to her, it was like talking to a close friend. I know she will be missed greatly by all who knew and loved her. So sorry she had to leave so soon!

“ My mom and best friend. I remember telling all my friends that they were always going to be second to my mom. I was never embarrassed to admit that. I will miss her every day. She was the person I could complain to, laugh with, go shopping with or go on a (secret from my Dad and Brother) ice cream run with. Without her I feel like my instruction manual is gone. She always knew how to help me whether I wanted help or not. I know she will be with me (probably telling me what to do and how to do it) for the rest of my life and that does give me lots of comfort. She wouldn't want me to be sad or depressed so I plan to live my life to the fullest and stay true to myself. I just can't believe my life has been changed for the worse but I will make the best out of my grief in honor of my best friend and mom.

“ My mom was my best friend.
We'd spend what felt like hours joking around during the day, and whenever I needed anything or was just feeling down, she was the first person I'd go to. She always found a way to make things better. She was kind and always willing to help, not just me, but anyone who needed it. That's just who she was.
She'll be deeply missed, by our family, and by everyone who got to know her.
I love you, mom.

“ Oh, Gaynor! You made me laugh like none other! Our College days were spent trying to “not get a demerit,” and be as social as possible. I will see you again someday, my friend!

“ Gaynor was a loved cousin, there was just over a year between us, with her being the eldest. We had recently got back in contact after a long time and shared a special bond via our mums. I remember the times she visited England when I was younger and it was so much fun telling people I had cousins in the USA, her mum love of all English sweets that gaynor also loved
It's funny I always remember our grandad as he always got out birthdays the wrong way around, hers the 30 and mine the 20
I still find it hard to believe she is not here, she had so much life to live
My love is send to Roger, Jessie and Tyler x and I hope to stay in contact with them in her memory
Miss you gaynor I wish we could have had more time and you didn't get to visit me here in France
RIP

“ I have known Gaynor since she was eight years old. I watched her grow up to be a beautiful person. Her priority was her Family. She did her best to care for them. She was thoughtful and funny and we had some beautiful times together. I will miss her deeply.

“ Gaynor was definitely a joy to be around. She would attend family parties of ours and have us in stitches from laughter. A wonderful human who will be greatly missed by my family and I. Sending all the love and hugs to those who held her close
