“ Dear family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Genevieve Dombrowski. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes many different emotions which are somewhat unpredictable. The Scriptures contain some practical advice. There is a time to weep according to Ecclesiastes 3: 1, 4. So don't hold back the tears. Remember, they are a natural and necessary part of grieving and even God's Son Jesus Christ wept. The Bible gives us the best comfort during times of grief. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29).

“ Gramma I will miss you more then you know. You were a one of a kind gramma and an even better great gramma. I was a very lucky person to have had such a special women in my life for so many years. I am so thankful that Nico and Olivia had lots a special times with you. Not to many people can say that they got to spend a lot of years with a great grandparent, but my kids can. I always knew that you loved me so much, and I know that the kids meant even more to you. A day will never go by that I won't think about you. Thank you for being a strong gramma that was always there for me, Nico & Olivia. You Helped mold them into the good, smart young adults that they have turned into, kids to be very pround of. Thank you, I love you, and I will forever miss you.

Your grand daughter, Pati
