“ When ever I saw your family at Mass I would sit with your family. Gram was always telling me how grateful she was that Kristen made her Holy Communion. It was a pleasure to be part of preparing her to receive the sacraments. Your family is on my daily prayer list.

“ I remember the first time I spent any real time with gram it was Dawns 12th or 13th birthday party - of course I'd met gram before but I'll never forget that she was the first one dancing as soon as the music started at the party . I quickly adopted her as my own after that & believe I've called her gram ever since. She was a joyous beautiful soul & she was a total spitfire . I will forever be grateful she was a part of my life ❤️ Rest in Peace Gram !! Love you forever

“ Genevieve was a beautiful, sweet and loving lady to all who knew her and best known as grams to so many. She was a devout catholic who would pray the rosary daily for anyone who needed prayers. We will miss this sweet lady so very much. Holly and Janet ❤️ We know you are in the arms of the Angels ❤️❤️
