Dear Marilyn, Nancy, Jackie, and Family.

Our sincerest condolences on the death of your Mom and Grandmother. Jean was a very special person and helped Carel and I and our sons out with many things as neighbors. We thought a great deal of her as a friend and confidante over the years. We feel very bad for you all with regard to the last few years with her illness and dementia. There were many trying days for you, we're sure. We remember her in her younger years when she was quite a woman who knew her own mind and insisted on her independence. We pray for you all now and for her now that she is at peace with the Lord. God bless you all in your time of grief.

“ She was the evening secretary at St. Sylvester Church - she was smart, quick-witted and good at her job. Saw her a couple of months ago with her daughter at the supermarket, and while she didn't remember me, it seemed to me there was still a little devilish look in her eyes! I am sure she will be happy to be reunited with her husband.

“ Dear family,
Although not personally with your dear mother and grandmother, i was saddened to hear of her passing. She shares my mothers first name, (which isn't that common). I'd like to share a scriptural thought that helped comfort me when my brother died. Its found at John 5:28,29-Revelation 21:3,4. I wish your family peace at this difficult time.

We used to live 2 houses away from the Pilarski's growing up. Genevieve was always a very nice and caring person and made the best pierogi's! My condolences to Marilyn, Jacqueline and Nancy.
