“ *Sad.
Gene shared her life with us.
Will remember her till end of our days.
Chesa, Andrew Fercowicz.*

“ *Gene' story, for me, is that of a land lady who became family. Over 40 years ago, as a young adult, I moved into Gene's home to rent her basement apartment. We became the best of friends! Hoping these pictures which I share will remind all of us who loved Gene of a saintly aunt, bowler and BINGO player, camper and card shark, Green House elder, friend and housecleaner, Westphalia neighbor and Madison Tower resident, prayer warrior and pet sitter, religious sister and traveler and teacher. Whether people called her Aunt Gene, Genia, Miss Gene, Miss Genevieve, Miss Skazalski, Jean, or Gene, they counted her as "family."
Rest in peace dear friend! I miss you so much!*

“Genevieve Skazalski or as our family called her Ms Gene was not just a dear friend to my husband Frank and myself but a second mother to us, a third grandma to our children and a great grandma to our granddaughter Madison.

If I had to choose one word to describe Ms Gene it would be fun. She made every gathering or outing a cheerful fun happy time. Whether it was coloring with the kids playing pin the tail on the donkey, painting pictures with water on the sidewalk on a hot summer day, or eating blue ice cream and then showing off her blue tongue Ms Gene was always the life of the party. Even washing dishes was not a chore but an adventure.

My fondest memory is of our youngest son when he was 5 looking outside seeing Ms Gene walking up to the porch and him yelling at the top of his voice "Here comes Ms Gene and she has a bag". Ms Gene always brought a bag with a treat every time she visited. Ms Gene was a nun who left the convent before we knew her. She may have left the convent but she did not leave her devotion or love of God behind. Ms Gene was one of the holiest persons I have ever known

Any time anyone asked Ms Gene how she was doing even in the last weeks of her life she always said "Better than ever" I know when she arrived at heaven's door and was asked how she was doing she said "Better than ever"

God treasures the death of His people, for in their passing He welcomes them home.
