“ Even though we have not had any contact in the last 20 odd years, my heart goes out to all of you during this most difficult time. Losing a mother is one of the hardest things to ever go through. May you find peace in knowing that she is at peace now, and in a better place than all of us.##imported-begin##Sandy Wruble##imported-end##

“ Dear Cazier Family, I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted personally, we share the pain of losing a dear loved one in death. May you find comfort in knowing that just as Jesus received power from his heavenly Father to raise back to life his close friend Lazarus (John 11;43,44), he will soon use that same God-given power to resurrect our loved ones sleeping in the grave to live forever under peaceful conditions right here on earth. (John 5;28,29; Rev. 21;3,4; Psalm 83;18) While grief at the loss of Genevieve is great, joy at receiving Genevieve during the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) Please read God's thoughts and may you find peace during your time of need and the days to come. Take care,##imported-begin##valerie thompson##imported-end##
