“ Our family has many wonderful memories of time spent with George, Debbie, Scott and Jeff. We were blessed to be neighbors back in the late 1970s. We raised kids together, swam in their pool and shared fun times as the kids grew. We became friends! We loved our euchre card game nights and just spending time together. You would always find welcome and laughter in their home and hearts. Until we meet again George...may God continue to hold all those you dearly loved in the palm of his hand and close to his heart.
