“ Growing up with George next door, he always had to put up with the Georgie Pordgie nursery rhyme. But we did have fun going camping in our family trailer, up to Otsego Lake or Port Sanilac State Park. Then as they made the move to a Fraser home on Groesbeck, to a mobile home in Mt. Clemens, we kept in touch over the years. Then I remembered his golden retriever, Pudgie? How names can pop into our memory or the memory itself, we're blessed by them, like everyone was by having George in their lives. God be with you friend and say Hi, to Bruce! You can share all your hunting stories!

“ In life, sometimes we are blessed to have a friend like George Potance. It is hard to put our friendship into words, probably because he was an extra special human being. George was one to give you the time of day, no matter who you were. Whether I was walking through the fields, small game hunting, standing up for a wedding, or working side by side at Ford Motor Company with George, it will be a memory for me that I won't forget. George would speak proudly of his two sons throughout the years. A proud husband and father. When George first told me of his illness, I felt if it was possible to conquer it, he could do it. Rest in peace good friend.

“ Hi! "Georgie" and his mom lived next door to us for quite awhile. I was his baby sitter while he and I were growing up. So saddened by this news. Sincere condolences to Dorothy & George's family. With fond memories, Donnie (Donelda) Sullins Durant

“ Dear Family of George. George was a great friend of mine in high school. Like so many of us, once graduating we never saw each other again, but I will never forget his kindness, smiles, and jokes. My deepest sympathies. Paulette Perry
