“ Teri, we loved George! He was so much fun to listen and talk to. We will miss his stories and sense of humor. I will miss his unique, ethnic dishes he brought to our annual dinner parties! Particularly fond memory is of George standing in front of our Java group (at the racetrack). And calling out the eclipse was starting! We will have to try to make apple pan dowdy!

“ Dear Teri. I remember that first time I encountered George at work. He was singing a show tune and laughing at everyone’s reaction. I loved it. I thought he was the smartest man I had ever met. I was in awe of his vast knowledge. He knew art, he knew poetry, he knew war stats, he knew show tunes. He really was a renaissance man. He was the only Druid I have ever met. He told the funnest stories and had the groups enthralled. I was on a lot of work functions with George and he always held the attention of the room He had me laughing for days. I can’t remember the total amount of conversations I had with Geo about my career. He always listened and gave the best advice. Rest well my dear friend Geo. I will see you again some day. Take care dear Teri.

“ Teri, we loved George especially how he loved and cherish you. He was such a gentlemen and a great storyteller. I’ll never forget his graciousness to the Rowdies when we visited you two. I know everyone he knew will always remember him.
