“ My sincere condolences go out to your family during this most difficult time. Death has never been an easy process to deal with. The bible calls death our enemy at 1 Corinthians 15:26. But that same scripture tells us that soon death will be brought to nothing. Revelation 20:14 repeats this promise. Revelation 21:3,4 tells of the promise of a better life where those faithful servants of God will never again have to experience the suffering and sorrow we do today. We will have the opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones. Jesus spoke of the resurrection at John 5:28,29 and 11:25,26. Paul too spoke of it at Acts 24:15. So draw close to God and he will draw close to you-James 4:8. These scriptures brought great comfort to my family and I during the loss of our loved one. I pray that they do the same for your family. May the God of all comfort give you such comfort and strength needed during this most difficult time.

Sincerely,

“ Thanks for everything Gramps. You are now with Grandma and if I know you as well as I think I do, you are taking her on the most romantic date and showing her the time of her life. We will meet again some day and when we do, you and I are going to share a bowl of chili together. I'll bring the oyster crackers, after all, you can't have chili without crackers. Love you always.##imported-begin##David Schneider##imported-end##

“Ja Ja George, your great-grandkids miss you very much. Elizabeth said, "I was very lucky to have a great-grandpa because usually not a lot of people have them. I got to know him instead of just looking at him in a picture. I love him and will miss him so much." She blew him a kiss tonight up in heaven. Then little Olivia just keeps saying she loves Ja Ja George and misses Ja Ja George.

We love you always Grandpa and Ja Ja George. Thank you for being you. We will love you and miss you forever. You were the best grandpa and great-grandpa anyone could ever have.

“ Uncle George was a teenager when Alan was born. Alan remembers having a "ball" with his young uncle. His observation of George and Shirley was one of awe; he saw only the romance and the love of a young couple starting their family together. Alan watched the family unit interacting with each and every baby that came along. He watched kissing and hugging and everlasting love in the George Pylar family. It affected his life as a shining example of a truly loving marriage when Al was so impressionable.##imported-begin##Alan A. & Eva A. Pylar##imported-end##

“ Uncle George, you were always a fun and loveable uncle. I have so many wonderful childhood memories to cherish because of the many fun things you did with us. I remember trips to the zoo, halloween parties at your house, lots of parties at your house. I hold you and aunt Shirley close in my heart always. You alone raised 8 kids that absolutely love and adore you. You will be missed.##imported-begin##Diane Valentine##imported-end##
