“ Although we have been apart (geographically) most of our lives, whenever I think of dear Georgette, I remember her as being exceptionally sweet, kind, understanding, loving, and having a cute laugh. I remember the last time I spoke with her was at my oldest brother, Tim Cavanaugh's visitation. I truly appreciated Georgette making the time and setting her priorities to be with our family, during our time of need and loss; it truly meant a lot to us!

We will miss Georgette's honest sweetness and smile and hope that her sincere and wonderful earthly characteristics, as well as her outgoing Christian efforts and activities are passed on to others.

Rest assured that God has reserved a special mansion for Georgette, along with Him and all her past relatives, friends, angels, and other faithful saints.

Our heavy hearts, thoughts, and prayers are sincerely expressed to her beloved husband, Charlie, Diane (Daniel) Rhodes, Thomas Massey, Michael (Josephine), Shelly, James (Mary-Anne), and to all her cousins and friends.

*With love, thoughts, and prayers,

“ Georgette, I look at your lovely picture, and memories of your sweet laugh come right back to me. I see you laughing at my brother Charley's jokes.

I am so sorry that you left us so soon and so unexpected. I pray for you to be resting in peace in Jesus' arms.

I will continue to pray the rosary in your honor. I will also have Chuck in my prayers.

I still covet your Barbie dolls! You had the best Barbie dolls and clothes for them!
