“ Jerry was one of my oldest and dearest friends and one of my late husband Brian's best friends if he wasn't telling some kind of joke he was telling a story and acting goofy he would talk to anyone he met on the street or anywhere else he sure had a gift to gab about 14 years ago our family's went on vacation together to the upper peninsula and we always had to wait for Jerry to get back in the truck because he would be talking to people from Kentucky Ohio Wisconsin and everyone in between about what who knows he just liked to talk I will miss you dearly and cherish the memories we've had RIP my dear friend love always Karen Fuller <3

“ My prayers and condolences go out to your family, friends and all that loved this little character with a giant's heart. Luigi as I've known him was one of the most charismatic, loving, caring people I've known. When I was at an extremely low point in my life he helped me, especially to lift my spirits with his jokes and wittiness. I haven't seen him in a while and I truly regret that. Jerry "Luigi" you'll be sorely missed my brother.

“ I will never forget all the times he made all of us laugh with a joke or a funny comment. Jerry was always happy and seemed to be so full of life. I lived hanging out on that side of the street just to hear what hilarious thing that he was going to say next. He lived his family so much and that was clear to everyone. I would have never thought I would be as sad as I am knowing that he is gone. Last time I seen him was at my fundraiser when he came to support me in my time 9f need. I think I can speak for all of the "Rein Street Crew" when I say that Jerry will be missed and NEVER forgotten. He's in a better place now smiling down on us all. R.I.P Jerry. Love, Chris Vernon.
